The said Commissioners provided for in this Act may employ one chief engineer and such additional surveyors, draughtsmen, and other assistants as they may deem necessary, who shall each be paid a reasonable compensation, to be agreed upon by them and the Commissioners. Sec. 5. The said Commissioners, before making their report, must call in for consultation some member of the United States Engineer Corps, or if none can be obtained, then some other competent engineer, and must submit to him the maps and charts made, and may pay him a reasonable compensation for his services. Sec. 6. This Act shall take effect from and after its passage. The first meeting of the Commissioners was held in Grayson on the sixteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, when an organization...
