

Kairos: The Greatest College Football Story about the Greatest College Football Rivalry

By Matt Frantz

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 8.3in. x 0.5in. Kairos is the true story of Matt Frantz, who despite having no real high school football experience decided to scale one of college footballs highest peaks by becoming a member of the Ohio State Buckeyes. After being rejected for two straight years, he relied only on his determination and obsession to wear the Scarlet and Gray by kicking 100 footballs every day until he earned a roster spot. What separates this story from any other is that he did more than just wear the uniform, he actually became a contributing member of the 1986-87 Ohio State Buckeyes by leading the team in scoring both seasons. After going from fifth string walk-on to starting place-kicker and helping the team to nine straight wins, Matt Frantz stood poised and ready to complete his dream by booting the final points through the goal posts, securing not only a victory over their arch rival, the Michigan Wolverines, but an outright Big Ten Championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl. Forty-six yards and three seconds later, the ball sailed wide of the goal posts. His miss not only punched the Wolverines...
