Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 400 pages. The award winning Sequel to Highland Wishes. , , In 1304, amidst Scotlands continuing war for independence. two wounded souls are forced on a journey neither wants, resulting in tragedy and disaster. Battle-hardened, untrusting and son of a Scottish Chieftain. Duncan MacThomas wants only to see his country free from English rule. Honor-bound to ensure his clans financial future, Duncan reluctantly travels to England to wed a woman he doesnt want. Wealthy and pampered. Catherine Gillingham anticipates a marriage to a Dukes son and is dismayed when her king decrees she must wed a Scotsman, the sort of man all of London despises. Can these two opposites find love amidst war and lower their barriers to find the peace they seek within their countries and themselvesEDITORIAL REVIEWS: Her Highland Rogue will become everyones favorite book! Leanne Burroughs continues the fiery tale of Scotlands history with Highlander Duncan MacThomas and his lady wife, Catherine Gillingham of England. Although both reluctantly entered into this wedded union, their reserve slowly melts to a white-hot passion. The creative blending of history and romance will appeal to readers on several levels. The authors research and understanding of Scottish politics is made evident through the characters actions and dialogue. Leanne Burroughs has an obvious love for this country and its people. Yet, this story shines most brightly through the main characters of Duncan and Catherine. Both of them have a vibrancy that pulses through these pages. This author is also extremely skillful with dialogue and was able to make Duncans Scottish burr seem almost audible. Readers will sigh, sob and squeal with delight whenever these characters are on the page! Every woman will want Her Highland Rogue! - Joyce Handzo, In the Library Reviews, 2006For those who love romances...
