MALIGNANT BRAIN TUMOURS

Springer. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 377 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.9in. Malignant brain tumours remain a not uncommon cause of disability and premature death, particularly in children and middle-aged adults. This is only too well known by those concerned with the clinical management of such patients. Thus, not only are malignant cerebral gliomas very aggressive tumours, usually associated with a rapidly fatal outcome, but also it has been recognised more recently that low grade gliomas often have a...
