Dick Paetzke - Postcards: Little letters from life Sheer entertainment with wit and wisdom Postcards: Little Letters from Life by Dick Paetzke warmly depicts the humor and surprising drama of everyday events seen with new eyes and a keen appreciation for human foibles and triumphs. A longtime Seattle advertising writer, Paetzke, turns from selling to telling with an eclectic collection of illustrated essays written from home and abroad with humorous, poignant, piercing, nostalgic or deeply affecting insights into otherwise familiar realities. Literal postcards with -Wish you were here- scrawled on the back, can t really describe the wonders of the world, he says. I don t mean the Taj Mahal or the Pyramids, he says. Rather the wonders of life itself and its great and small experiences. It s too easy to stumble through life and never really look at them close up. I wrote Postcards to illustrate how ordinary things can matter in an extraordinary way. A number of the book s 28 postcard chapters were written in southern Italy where the author and his wife enjoy a second home on the Adriatic. Lovers of things Italian will relish the book s chapters on art, food, driving, social behavior, cultural practices, and purely Italian mores that can t be found in any tourist guide. That said, Postcards is not a book about Italy, but about life-which happens anywhere. Paetzke includes chapters that will delight dog owners with the same kind of charm and emotional reward they found in John Grogan s tale, Marley and Me. New grandparents will revel in his experiences with a relationship he never dreamed possible. Readers with a taste for nostalgia will...
