Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: .be read with pleasure by all interested in the progress of this new undertaking. A year ago last December the Berean Settlement was founded in a modest cottage at 642 Russell street, Detroit, through the efforts of Mrs D I. Paige. The active work was placed in the hands of Miss Lura Peckham, a Michigan girl who had studied the work for years, and who, to perfect herself, had taken a hospital course for trained nurses. The cottage of six rooms was plainly furnished and Miss Peckham took up her residence there in every sense of the word. Two doors away was the Berean Chapel where the largest Free Kindergarten in Detroit is conducted, so that the news concerning the new comer was taken to their houses by the children. A mother's meeting followed, but many were a little timid in coming. Miss Peckham then began visiting the homes in the neighborhood, and was soon on visiting terms with a large circle. Thoughtful hints concerning house keeping and managing children were taken up in a kindly spirit, the boys and girls were encouraged to call and enjoy games till the evening, until after a few months the house became known as Our Neighborhood Cottage. It has been the aim of Miss Peckham to look after the sick whom she visits every day. Through the kindness of Parke, Davis Co, a small but complete pharmacy has been equipped and prescriptions are filled at a small...
