Every Thought of You: A Sailors Love Letters from the Pacific World War II

By Paul L. Edwards

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 686 pages. Dimensions: 10.0in. x 6.9in. x 1.5in. Paul L. Edwards instilled in his daughter that she could do anything she wanted. He taught her to work hard and play hard. Paula graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Missouri and joined IBM, where she was a manager for many years before taking early retirement. After Paula found her fathers World War II letters, she realized they showed her fathers love for his wife, and their love created her. So to complete the circle of love Paula compiled all her fathers World War II letters as a lasting tribute in Every Thought of You. Women and men of all ages, lovers, baby boomers, history buffs, and military families will enjoy reading this book of love letters Paul L. Edwards wrote to his bride from training camps and the South Pacific during World War II. They were married November 27, 1941, in Sedalia, Missouri, and on December 7th the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor. One year later Paul, a blacksmith who worked for Missouri Pacific Railroad, enlisted in the Navy 88th Construction Battalion (Seabees) to fight the Japanese and wrote Catherine almost 700 letters, postcards,...
