A promising Iranian-American law student is mysteriously snatched from the Harvard commons and forced into a dark, dangerous world of international espionage. . . . A statue of Moses and the Ten Commandments is erected on a courthouse lawn in Texas, sparking legal conflict and ethnic violence. . . . When veteran Washington journalist Jason Palani is charged to investigate these events, he discovers a hidden agenda driven by Washington powerbrokers bent on changing the face of America. Probing deeper, he finds himself on the run from deadly forces, with few options and only a small cadre he can trust: a senior senator, a Secret Service agent, and a Justice Department lawyer with whom he shares an attraction. Jason and his team race desperately to expose the conspiracy before the election of a president controlled by unseen and sinister forces.
